

Free school choice: One condition

Equal state financing of both public schools and private schools is the only effective way to get real free choice of education of high quality.