

ECNAIS – Brussels
European Parliament

§ Freedom of choice is freedom of information

Families should be able to choose freely and informed, not just by facts and figures but in the interest of the child

§ Freedom of choice is freedom of education

Schools should be free to develop a programme within national basic standards

§ Freedom of choice is freedom of evaluation

Schools should be able to evaluate the growth of a child, not just by tests and grades but by knowledge and skills